

“Delivering care where it counts”

Sharing and listening sessions about our services

How can we make sure our patients get the right care, at the right time and in the right place by working with other local organisations?

We would like to invite patients, carers, members of the public and representatives of patient and community groups to meet with us and discuss some of these themes at the following times and places:

11 th July 2016	2:00pm - 4:00pm	Town Hall, Burton, Dove Room
12 th July 2016	10:00am-12:00pm (Lichfield)	Samuel Johnson Community Hospital, Seminar room
13 th July 2016	12:30pm-2:00pm (Tamworth)	Sir Robert Peel Hospital, Wiggin Centre
13 th July 2016	5:00pm – 7:00pm	Queen's Hospital, Burton, Medical Education Centre

Executive Medical Director, Magnus Harrison and Director of Strategy, Alison Wynne, will share how we are working with our key partners on our plans.

There will be opportunities for you to talk to us, ask questions, make suggestions or voice your concerns.

We will also let you know of other ways you can be kept informed or be involved in the planning and development of our services in the future.

If you would like to attend one of the sessions or would like any more information or have access or communication needs please email:
